Data Protection Policy. Please note that membership records are held on computer, and under the Data Protection Act you are entitled to object to your name being included. We hope that you will not object as this will inevitably cause more work for the Secretary and there is always the possibility that you will receive your correspondence late. It may also affect the insurance cover provided for the Association by the IAO. We produce a printed listing of all our members' details (except date of birth) annually - this is circulated to members only.
